

Fr Richard and the parishioners of Lacken would like to thank local sign artist Diarmuid Grace for designing and erecting the new sign at Lacken church. We are also grateful to the parishioners who generously donated to this project. Lacken church is situated in an unique setting overlooking the Blessington lakes. It is hoped to carry out a number of improvements to the church grounds in the coming months.